Palm Sunday Breakfast – Sunday 2nd April, 9:30am

On Palm Sunday breakfast will be served from 9.30am before All Age Worship at 10.30am.

Easter Day – Sunday 9th April, 10:30am

Please remember to bring a small posy of flowers to decorate the Easter cross. This year our Easter Offering collections will be for 'Methodist women in Britain', envelopes with Gift Aid option will be in the foyer beforehand, and given out on Palm Sunday.

Easter Egg Prayer Gift – Thank You

Thank you to everyone who donated towards the Easter eggs and books which have been given to those who come along to our children's groups. There are 68 children who have taken the message of Jesus' hope and joy into local homes this Easter. Thank you for praying for the children and their families.

Prayer Box

From this Sunday a prayer box will be available in the porch.

Cover for Rev David Winstanley

We are delighted that Rev Ian Souter will be providing cover for David while he's recovering from his operation. Ian will be leading services on Maundy Thursday, Easter Day and first Sunday in May. Ian was already planned to led worship on 16th April, and will still do so. Please remember David and Julie in your prayers.

Free Gift Stall – Coronation Picnic, Beacon Hall – Sunday 7th May

As part of the coronation celebrations, we will be working with St John's and St Josephs to run a 'Free Gift' stall. If anyone has a gift they would like to donate or if anyone has wrapping paper, they can give it to Linda or Caroline.

Meeting of Peasedown Environment Group – Monday 3rd April, 7.30pm

This meeting is open to everyone with an interest in environmental issues in and around Peasedown

GREEN TIPSWeek Commencing Sunday 2nd April

Take a walk if the weather's fine and enjoy the gardens or the countryside, and if you can't walk just sit in the garden, count the birds and give thanks.

Week Commencing Sunday 9th April

It's Easter day and we celebrate new life in Jesus, pray for new life for the planet and ask God what you can do.
